At A Glance

“I believe this was a very rewarding experience. You are passionate about what you are doing and it reflects itself in your presentations, organization, and planning. From a personal standpoint, you made me feel very comfortable. I felt free to speak out, voice my opinions and concerns, and throw in my occasional sidebars. I appreciate that very much. Thank you for a rewarding educational and personal experience.”

week 2 Date	Holocaust	Holocaust/ Museum Trip	Holocaust	Holocaust	Holocaust

Who Should Attend

- ➔ For Middle School & High School teachers, administrators and professional staff
- ➔ Targeted to meet state mandate in several disciplines, especially the social sciences, English, modern language and the arts
- ➔ Endorsed by the NJ Commission on Holocaust Education
- ➔ Professional development hours provided by the NJ Holocaust Commission

This 9-day intensive training session will broaden knowledge and enrich teaching skills in the Holocaust, Genocide, historical and contemporary human rights issues.

Participants will:

- ➔ Learn techniques and strategies to address these topics with students
- ➔ Study the Holocaust, other genocides and genocide-like tragedies, such as Armenia, Nanking, Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur.
- ➔ Discuss issues of prejudice, racism and human rights

In addition to classes on the Brookdale campus, we will take two trips, to the Museum of Jewish Heritage and Holocaust Memorial in New York City, and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C.

“This course opened up a whole new world to me. The information and knowledge I absorbed was unbelievable. I think the Center is fabulous. I wish more people knew about it to take advantage of all your resources.”

“Thank you so much for your knowledge and the atmosphere that you created in this class...I will take this experience with me and use it next year.”
